AMUSEMENTS

AT THE PRINCESS

Joan Crawford, Anita Page and Dorothy Sebastian, who gave fans something to talk about with the highly entertaining "Our Darling Daughters," and Harry Beaumont, who directed the silent film hit, have given producers what is without doubt one of the most sparkling, invigorating and dramatically interesting talking pictures to be seen at the Princess theatre in a long while, namely, "Our Darling Daughters." This time they are supported by a male contingent which includes the defuncted Robert Montgomery, the juvenile Raymond Hackett, and the mischievous John Miljan.

AT THE RIALTO

"Different in every respect—this is the most different picture I have ever had to cast—a story that caught and held my interest the moment I began reading it."

Such is Hugh Herbert's description of "He Knew Women," his first directorial effort for Radio Pictures, featuring Lowell Sherman and Alice Joyce. This unusual romantic comedy drama is one of the most interesting ever shown on the talking screen. It has its first showing today at the Rialto theatre.

When Carl Laemmle, Jr., general manager of production for Universal, decided to make an elaborate all-talking picture of the silent success "East is West," he had the good fortune to obtain the services of Samuel Shipman himself to supervise the screen adaptation and director the famous play which starred Fay Hunter for more than two years on Broadway, and was one of the greatest hits in the history of the American theatre.

The picture version of "East is West," coming to the new Capitol theatre today and Friday only, features Luge Velez, Lewis Ayres and Edward G. Robinson.

At the Empress, Victor McLaglen, whose exploits in "What Price Glory?" The Black Watch, featuring several other front rank pictures, are shown at the Empress theatre on Wednesday to play a three-day engagement in "A Devil With Women."

To say that he fully maintains the standard set in past performances is to give him but his due. It seems that as the action unfolds itself, he has little difficulty in portraying a role, as various scenes and incidents bear a striking similarity to happenings in his own career.

In "A Devil With Women" he is assigned the role of a soldier of fortune who finds his way to one of the banana belt countries along the Caribbean and there engages in the daily attractive life of serving in the army and fighting it out with Dan Cupid.

The game love form no little part of the whole. McLaglen is the same here as ever, with an engaging smile and personality that gets across with telling effect. He is assisted by a sterling cast.

headed by Mona Maris, Humphrey Bogart and Luana Purnell, all of whom measure up to the demands made upon them. The shorts include the comedy "Big Ship Grandmas," the novelty reel, "Confounded Interest," and the attractive "New Rhythm."

AT THE MONARCH

The wit and philosophy of Will Rogers drew a large crowd of admirers to the Monarch theatre today. Rogers drew a salary only as an actor, but at the same time he was able to make a fortune in the making of a picture in which he is the central figure.

For example, the scene in "They Had to See Paris," where Irene Rich led Rogers into the capacious hall of the chateau, and Rogers, taking his place on the stage, said: "All aboard, New York Central express, train going West. Albany, Syracuse, Buffalo, Cleveland and Chicago."

AT THE DREAMLAND

The last actor one would expect to see playing a convict in a prison drama is Robert Montgomery, debauched hero of "30 Days in College" and "Norma." He is playing the role of "Our Own Desires," but still it was just what Montgomery's fans put him over.

He has the role of Kent, the college boy sent to prison after an auto accident, in "The Big House." Montgomery's prison drama is now playing at the Dreamland theatre. And despite Montgomery's penchant for the role, his role is the most serious and important in the picture.

COMING TO THE EMPIRE

Since "Bunty Pulls the Strings," which had a season of 12 months in London and ran for a similar period in New York, by the time it comes to the Empire theatre for three days, commencing Monday, December 1, the picture has been running for nearly double that period of time and will be presented at the Empire theatre for three days, commencing Monday, December 1.

The scene of "Bunty Pulls the Strings" is set in Scotland, but the characters are not all, as in "Bunty," of that nationality. The action of the play takes place in and around Edinburgh, partly in the Middle Ages and partly in the 18th century, which was then occupied (A.D. 1642) by an English regiment.

The picture, which takes in the thirteenth Light Infantry, several of the officers appear in the play, together with Highlanders, a French actress, and a doctor, who is servant to one of the lieutenants. This mingling of accents and characters is of enormous value to the play, and to quote from a London critic, "we learn how possible it is to laugh at Scottish humor which is not based on the same jokes about Aberdeen or Glasgow." The humor is delicious, almost every line.

PROVINCIALS

—Folklife to the speakers

VANCOUVER MAN SPEAKS. Gadsby, Nov. 27.—The senior group C.O.L.T. held an interesting meeting recently in the home of their leader, Mrs. B. Gadsby, when J. B. R. of the City of Halifax conducted the dedication service.

Rev. Hugh Dobson, D.D., of Vancouver, field secretary for Alberta and British Columbia, and a member of the Canadian Council of Social Service and evangelism in the province, was the guest of honor. A small but appreciative gathering here on Tuesday evening.

NEW OIL WELL

Lloydminster, Nov. 27.—The location of the new oil well that is to be drilled close to Lloydminster is believed to be five miles from the Rivercourse station on the C.P.R. branch line running south-west of Lloydminster. It will be drilled by the Rayco Oil Ltd., of which Raymond L. Cook, field superintendent of the Rayco Oil Ltd., is largely interested, and the operations will be under his personal supervision and direction. Some of the material for the derrick is already on the ground. The derrick builders who have had the contract for building the Algonquin company's derrick will also build the Rayco derrick and will be moving to the new location as soon as their work on the Algonquin property is completed.

PLANT BREAKS DOWN

Fairview, Nov. 27.—The electric light plant at Fairview is at present out of commission owing to the generators having been burnt out. Oscar Johnson, at whose place the plant is located, says it will be a week or 10 days before the service is restored. The company is installing a larger engine for increased service.

Jack Lawless, of the operating department, C.N.R., has the misfortune to break his wrist while practicing hockey. The fracture was set by Dr. McFadden.

WIND DAMAGES

Fairview, Nov. 27.—One of the worst of winters in the memory of residents here prevailed for two days. Wires are down all over the country, and in some places, the hard frosts from plowed fields, has nearly filled the ditches along some of the roads.

TENDER BANQUET

Vegreville, Nov. 27.—At Tuesday's session of the local Chamber of Commerce, it was decided to extend a banquet to the local boys who have been awarded the Dominion championship of football in this winter club contest. After their return to Vegreville, in the four entries made by Vegreville since 1924, the provincial and two Dominion championships were secured. The boys are expected home the latter part of this week.

Pilgrimage of Homage to Canadian Dead in France is Made by Bennett

PREMIER WITH SISTER VISITS BATTLEFIELD

Lays Wreath of Flowers on Canadian Memorial at Vimy Ridge

By GEORGE HAMILTON
Canadian Press Staff
Correspondent

ARRAS, Nov. 27.—From the Somme to the Salient, Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, accompanied by his sister, Miss Bennett, and by Major-General Sir F. B. Rowland, vice-president of the Imperial War Graves Commission, Wednesday traversed the old Canadian battlefields.

It was on Mr. Bennett's part, a pilgrimage of homage to the Canadian dead who lie in France and Flanders—pilgrims which began at Amiens, where the Canadian dead held their head-quarters in the last drive of the Great War, and ended at Vimy where the Bennett party planned to spend the night. Today they will return to London by train.

It was a day such as the Canadian soldiers knew only too well in those four years of endless war. All through the night a downpour had drenched the land. Wednesday morning the rain continued to pour, the chalk into mud which clogged the feet and muddied the eyes. Progress difficult.

Spells of blue sky appeared occasionally only to disappear behind heavy clouds. One such interval occurred when the party went to Vimy Ridge where Mr. Bennett laid a wreath of purple pansies and chrysanthemums at the foot of the Canadian memorial. The wreath was laid by Mr. Bennett. "From the government and the people of Canada."

Many Chances
Yet it was a tour which revealed the many changes of the battlefield. One may see the western front—except in certain districts where the front line is still visible. The tangled desolation which was the heritage of war was found to be steadily yielding to the work of peace. Where the plough has not cut, vegetation is the old scars, and the old devastation of France almost disappeared.

Outside Arras—where formerly ran the German line—wrecked buildings stand in ruins. The ruins are the only ruins in the German neighborhood. The German trenches all have gone. The railway sidings these November days reveal only a few beet rather than shells. On the crest of Vimy Ridge—which is now Canada—one may see the old German line. The old German line trenches only 30 yards apart. Along the parapets the lullabies, German helmets, old rifles and bits of debris. On the chalk walls the German trenches all have gone.

But even on Vimy, vegetation runs riot and heavy rains tend to level the ground. France has returned to the devastations with thoroughness. But, where possible, she has not been destroyed. The hanging Mass of Canada of Albert fell at last, but it fell only to be replaced by the planks, the old design of the Mass of Canada having been replaced and used again. So once again the Madonna of Albert holds on in emulation a figure of the Christ child.

Hold Election On
1929 Voters' List
SOUTHURY, Ont., Nov. 27.—A resolution was sprung here Wednesday when the 1929 voters' list was presented to His Honor Judge Prosser for ratification, which was carried on the grounds that the list was not printed and posted in time to conform with the statute and the law in its entirety. The result of the election would be the 1929 voters' list, which acting as the basis for the election, would deprive between 2,000 and 3,000 electors of the privilege of voting.

The English Singers To Go On Radio

The English Singers, famous sextette whose rendering of Old English Part-Songs, Madrigals, and folk songs have given them international fame, were heard in Canada November 21, over the coast-to-coast radio network of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Their program is mainly seventeenth and eighteenth century folk music, many of which have been arranged by the distinguished British composer, Dr. Vaughan Williams. The players in their illustrious quartet, to right, Norman Noley, Norman Stone, Flora Mann, Nellie Carson, Lillian Berger and Outbrett Kelly.

to England for that purpose, and if one may judge from present grain prices, the market now are worse than they were at any time in Canadian history," said Mr. Stewart.

"Only three per cent of our total consumption of manufactured goods come from Great Britain," Mr. Bennett complained these figures and said we must raise the duties so as to restrict the imports of these commodities. So he raised the duty on boots and shoes, cottons and woollens.

"Sometimes we hear protests about Britain's importations of Argentine wheat, but remember that Britain's imports of Argentine wheat grew out of the fact that the Argentine was purchasing large quantities of British goods. It was the purchases by the Argentine, which helped to take up the slack caused by the Argentine's support of the duties on Mr. Bennett's tariff bill.

REGINA, Sask., Nov. 27.—In forming the Royal Commission that the government was seriously distressed of having a speedy end to this investigation. C. E. Gregory, C.B., crown attorney, announced Wednesday that he would produce no further evidence in support of the enquiries which the tribunal has already entered upon. The crown's case in the Regina jail charges came to a sudden close.

Six witnesses altogether were called by the crown in the trial of the general "Bryant" Johnson, including Smokey Johnson, whose declaration formed its basis.

In taking this position the provincial government in the Regina jail charges came to a sudden close. The crown's case in the Regina jail charges came to a sudden close.

But increased prices for tin plate mean higher prices for canned goods. The curious fact is that the duty on tin plate is not a duty on the tin plate itself, but on the duty on the tin plate.

NOT IN FAVOR POOL ENTERING FLOUR MILLING

Report on Proposal Presented at Meeting in Calgary

CALGARY, Alta., Nov. 27.—After hearing and discussing briefly the report on Pool elevators operations during the last year, delegates to the annual meeting of the Alberta Wheat Pool in session here Wednesday turned to a list of resolutions which will probably take up most of today.

J. Jesse Strang, of Claresholm, presented the supplementary report on the possibilities and advisabilities of the Pool going into the flour milling business.

The report, which was read and tabled for discussion at a later session of the meeting, follows:

"The experience of past years in the flour milling business indicates that if the Wheat Pool ever ventures into that business, careful and comprehensive plans will have to be made to insure a continuous demand for the product, and also for ample reserves to be accumulated in good times to carry the enterprise over lean years."

"While advocates for a Pool flour mill have made good arguments, your committee is still of the opinion that it is doubtful if such a venture would give satisfactory results in view of the multiplicity of mills in Canada, resulting in the keenest competition and narrow markets for Canadian flour overseas."

R. D. Purdy, general manager of the Alberta Pool, in his report, declared that the department of agriculture in the United States, resulting in the keenest competition and narrow markets for Canadian flour overseas."

The clause was proposed by H. H. Gibson, United States representative, who explained that while the United States was willing to accept very rigid rules binding the nations to the treaty it was ready to consider the fears of other nations.

The only opposition to the clause came from Russia. Ward declared it unacceptable to the Soviets who are convinced of their right to be absolutely binding on the states under all circumstances.

It was generally understood that the clause was designed to counter the fears of some of Russia's neighbors. It envisages a situation in which Canada is threatened by attack and ready to lay aside the treaty restrictions and have full liberty to arm itself.

Man Believed Dead Appears Alive and Well

ASSOCIATED PRESS, Que., Nov. 27.—Jean Baptiste Arbour, itinerant medicine vendor of no fixed address, unconsciously caused a sensation when he appeared in the streets of this city this afternoon.

The first person to recognize him was Joseph La Pointe, local undertaker, who thought he had Arbour's body in his funeral parlour.

Arbour's appearance, alive and well, upset police theories that it was his body, with the skull crushed and half buried under what was apparently a funeral pyre found in the woods three miles from here, last Sunday.

Health Talks by Dr. Mil-needell, arranged for the week of prayer had proved very successful, having an average attendance of thirty. Since then a devotional service is held every evening at 8.45 with good attendance of the young girls and others. Mrs. Mackenzie also reported that arrangements had been made for the Christmas Eve service at the Y. W. C. Consideration is being given by the Dominion government to a further extension of the reduced freight rate on Alberta coal moving into the central markets of Canada, it was learned on good authority on Thursday. This special rate, which is now in effect on such shipments and the present rate of the railroads has been in effect since the spring of 1922.

No definite information has leaked out as to the government's decision, but it is understood the entire cabinet looks favorably upon the scheme.

Under the plan the government makes good the amount which the railroads have lost on shipments from the west at the reduced rate.

Should the government finally decide to extend the present Alberta operators will benefit immeasurably. Coal is gradually being converted to the many advantages of using the Alberta coal and orders have been placed for a large quantity lately.

She laughed, then snatched

And from my hands she Took the sword for murder.
The little space she left is
To me.

Consideration is being given by the Dominion government to a further extension of the reduced freight rate on Alberta coal moving into the central markets of Canada, it was learned on good authority on Thursday. This special rate, which is now in effect on such shipments and the present rate of the railroads has been in effect since the spring of 1922.

No definite information has leaked out as to the government's decision, but it is understood the entire cabinet looks favorably upon the scheme.

Under the plan the government makes good the amount which the railroads have lost on shipments from the west at the reduced rate.

Should the government finally decide to extend the present Alberta operators will benefit immeasurably. Coal is gradually being converted to the many advantages of using the Alberta coal and orders have been placed for a large quantity lately.

CANADIANS PROMINENT AT CHICAGO

Will Prove Formidable
Competitors to U.S.
Agriculturians

CHICAGO, Nov. 27.—The finest specimens from the flocks and herds of three of Canada's agricultural provinces were being led from their pens through the great Chicago Union Stock yards today, to await in their stalls and pens the battle between Canada and the United States for the agricultural supremacy of the continent that will begin when the 21st International Livestock Exposition opens on Saturday.

Cattlemen from Ontario and Alberta, Ontario sheep raisers, and the breeders of Saskatchewan, were gathered before the grand open fire in the venerable Stock Yards Inn to weigh the chances of duplicating or exceeding the victories which their animals brought to the Dominion at last year's show.

Twenty-five Canadian exhibitors are showing 100 head of cattle in the livestock section of the show, which judging starts on Monday. In the hay and grain division, with judging beginning Saturday, Canada will be an even more dangerous competitor to farmers of the United States.

As is usual, the sheep division finds the largest number of exhibitors. The entire flock is represented, with 138 breeding animals and 61 fat animals competing.

In the three cattle breeds, Canadians have entered 40 breeding and 31 fat animals, and in the three sheep breeds there are 18 Canadian animals championed for the title of champions which denote supremacy.

In the cattle division Charles J. Yule, Calgary, Alta., and the University of Alberta of Edmonton, are the two exhibitors. The University of Alberta with three entries, is the only Canadian exhibitor in the hereafter division, and has entered four fat Aberdeen Angus steers.

The list of breeders entered is a list year shorter than usual, with familiar names missing.

In the sheep division the list of entries for the seven breeds finds many of the Canadian exhibitors winners of other years well represented.

One Wet And Two Dry Votes On Beer

Three local option votes have been held in Alberta during 1930 and as the year is drawing to a close there is no one of any others being held, according to John D. Hunt, clerk of the executive council.

Of the three held, one went wet and two dry.

At Fairview on Aug. 23, the voters in one of the five divisions decided going in favor of the dry.

On Jan. 15, at Wainman, the vote was won by 36 to 22, while at Metlakow on Jan. 8, the dry won by 147 to 65.

Since 1923 a total of 97 votes have been held, of which 31 have been in favor of the dry and 66 for the wet.

This year has seen the least number since the Liquor Control Act was put on the statute books, and is attributable to the likelihood of there being a plebiscite next year.

Things Picking Up In Western Canada

Business with its company has been present, according to J. A. MacKenzie, president of the Alberta Petroleum Producers' Association, who is in Edmonton in the course of an inspection trip.

His headquarters at Whitehorse, comparing the three prairie provinces, Mr. MacKenzie stated that Alberta stood the most favorable position with regard to business at present. "Things are picking up in Manitoba, but business conditions in Saskatchewan are very quiet. As far as our company is concerned, Alberta leads the other two provinces," said the president.

The Petroleum Producers' Association, Ltd., are independent marketers of oil and gasoline.

Better Business In Alberta Due

"We look for an increase of about 10 per cent. in general business next year," said V. D. Brown, manager for the Alberta branch of the Ford Motor Company, who is in the city on business for a few days.

Referring to the amount of business done by his own firm last month, Mr. Brown declared that the Ford company had been successful in doing 50 per cent. of all motor car business in the province. "The volume of business is down at present, and things are quiet in the west, but this is only to be expected at the present time. A sharp increase in general business should be noted next year," said Mr. Brown. He is leaving shortly for the east.

Business Leader

FRANK STANFIELD, M.P.P.

In 1928, V.E. April 24, 1912, the son of Charles Edward and Isabella (nee) MacKenzie, was born in the Public School at Trunk. As a young man he entered the oil and gas business, working his way up through every department, later becoming joint manager of standard oil of Canada, then associated with his position he now actively holds.

Mr. Stanfield has in the past served his province and the Dominion as member Nova Scotia legislature for Colchester county, since 1918, then in 1920, and his immediate family comprises Mrs. Stanfield (formerly nee) Anna Thomas, four sons and a daughter.

Mr. Stanfield has for many years been a leading commercial and political figure throughout the Dominion.

POWER CO. WILL SPEND MILLION

Extensions to Northern Lines Are Now Planned

The construction program for 1931 for the Calgary Power Company will necessitate an expenditure of approximately $1,000,000 according to G. A. Gaherty, president, who was in the city on business Thursday.

Extensions will be made to northern lines, although full details in this connection are not available as yet. A recently completed line running through Canmore to Viking, Valley, Haddon, and Tofield is at present in service.

A total of 40 miles of line will be constructed to serve nine emergency landing fields for air mail planes between this city and Tofield. The work will commence within the next few weeks and will cost about $150,000, it was announced.

Permanent repairs have been made to the class River power plant which supplies Edmonton with power, and Mr. Gaherty stated that he did not anticipate any further trouble from the source. During a recent storm this plant was damaged through water seeping over the dam.

Grain Movement In City Higher

The grain movement on the Edmonton division of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the period from August 1, 1930, to November 21, was about 80 per cent greater than the last year for the same period last year, according to J. H. Chown, superintendent of the Edmonton division for the C.P.R., on Thursday.

From August 1 to November 21 there were 3,800 cars loaded, and the superintendent stated that on average this year was 10 per cent greater for the increase in loadings over the former year.

Many farmers are holding their grain in hopes of better prices, remarked Mr. Chown.

Ladies' City Basketball League Starts At Varsity Gymn Tonight

KATS BY BILL LEWIS

Bob Merrett, that untiring secretary of the Edmonton and District Football Association, who turns his efforts to the right cause in the winter as secretary of the Edmonton Amateur League Association, has been more enthusiastic regarding the first amateur with show of the season to be held at the Memorial Hall Friday night.

Talking to the writer over the phone last night, Bob was even more worked up than usual over the prospect of a real long-up program of bouts and over the class of fighters on the card.

In the past many complaints have been heard over the preponderance of small youngsters on the bill and the lack of bouts featuring heavier fighters. It will be a very different tomorrow, I am assured by Mr. Merrett. He claims that the majority of entries are from boxers over 125 pounds, and that many of these will be light-heavyweights and heavyweights.

The various clubs have helped out to come into this matter, some of them refusing to take here weighing under 110 pounds.

Two fighters who were great last season, but who have fallen out of the card tomorrow are Johnny Blackhead and Freddie Williams, who last year were the main attraction of the bouts. They are in different classes, Blackhead having become a light-weight while Williams remains in the featherweight division. But at each, which will probably put the exhibition on a more serious basis, he is supposed to be up again.

Blackhead still represents the Edmonton Community League Club while Williams is fighting under the colors of the Y. M. C. A. where Louis Laver, that great boxer in senior ranks a few years back, acts as trainer and instructor.

Down beyond the Great Lakes Hamilton Tigers and Percy Brier continue to "box" over the "box" in the Y. M. C. A. where the Hamilton Tigers are the "box" home town. Toronto's "box" is also in the Y. M. C. A. where the Hamilton Tigers are the "box" home town. Toronto's "box" is also in the Y. M. C. A. where the Hamilton Tigers are the "box" home town.

All in quiet and serene on the local hockey front at this writing and the schedule-makers must be very busy indeed, for not a single league has released its schedule of games for the winter.

Most of the teams have re-commenced regular work-out, however, after the recent cold snap which brought disaster to the ice surface on the indoor rink. Forty-Nine, of the senior circuit, R. J. Jones, of the intermediate league, and Captain, of the junior league, all held practice at the arena last night.

Chicago Blackhawks, managed and coached by Bill Tobin and Dick Price, pair of Westerners, have already shown that they are going to be a mighty team in the league in the current National Hockey League and are the only out-landers from the major pro circuit.

WEEKLY

CO-EDS MEET INDEPENDENTS IN CAGE LOOP

Gradettes Not Entered; Students Are Favored to Win

The Ladies' City Basketball League gets under way tonight when the independents meet Varsity Grads in a game at the Varsity gymnasium. Both teams are strong and perhaps a little over-confident of victory.

In this branch of sports, as in most of the university, it is the students who are the main attraction. The independents are made up of students from the University of Alberta, the University of Saskatchewan, and the University of Regina. The Varsity Grads are made up of graduates from the University of Alberta, the University of Saskatchewan, and the University of Regina.

GOOD BOXERS ENTERED FOR MITT TOURNEY

Strong List of Entries for Fight Program Friday Night

One of the best fight programs staged here in a long time is expected at the Memorial Hall tomorrow night when the Edmonton Amateur League Association puts on its first tourney of the year. The program is strong and the entries are good.

A total of 25 entries had been received by last night by the secretary, and at least 15 bouts are promised patrons of the show Friday night.

Draws for opponents will be made this afternoon and the various bouts will be announced through the press tomorrow.

Officials of the Association are confident that this will be one of the best bouts they have yet promoted and they expect that the making capacity of the Memorial Hall will be taxed to the limit to accommodate the crowd when the program gets under way on Friday evening.

Plenty Big Boys
In order to follow the wishes of many fans, only a very few light boys are on the card, which will feature fighters in the heavier classes. Many light-heavyweights and heavyweights have entered.

The pick of Northern Alberta's amateur scrappers are already entered for the meet, including Earl Reynolds of Northlake, Earl Burton, Lougheed, Johnny Blackhead, and Gordon Williams, Y. M. C. A. of Edmonton. Frankie Madden, Woodward C. L. of Edmonton, in addition to many other prominent local fighters.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT CALORIES AND VITAMINS IN CHILD'S DIET

The constant reminder of calories, protein, vitamins, etc. has brought about a new trend in child nutrition. Before such words became commonplace in literature dealing with child nutrition, the mother fed her family—entirely or in part—on fruits, and breads gave them enough water to satisfy their thirst. The children grew up and flourished. Today the mother is faced with the confusion about diets that she thinks of food in terms of its calories and vitamins. The means of satisfying one's appetite is not the same as it was in the past.

Calories Just a Measurement

These are plausible but nevertheless, false, ideas. Calories are valuable to the pediatric or dietitian in knowing the caloric value of a diet

FITS his physical needs, but calories are a measurement, not a food. No one is able to tell the child how many calories he needs per day the growth of the child needs. The child's having a good appetite is a good enough appetite to eat enough food to grow. There are some natural measuring rods, and a healthy appetite is one of them. The child grows as a means of knowing when he has enough food to grow.

An ounce of butter and one egg, for example, contain more heat units measured by calories than an ounce of milk and an egg. The child who will content that he can eat more butter and eggs than sugar even if such a diet contained all and more than the child needs, will not grow. The child has calories, whether many or few, but the child does not need them in any way or amount.

MONTREAL, Nov. 27.—Let to its own device with Wall Street closed for Thanksgiving, the market went easily 6.69 share were traded in during the session. The market was a little more restless than usual, but the volume remained completely in line with the previous week's trading.

Against today's movement was the fact that the market was about half the total for all issues. Two factors were responsible for this, namely, the particular situation. Post Affair Pro
